

Integration of UAS at HAI HELI-EXPO 2015

Learn about the latest developments in the integration of unmanned aircraft systems (UAS) into the National Airspace System (NAS). The FAA continues to move aggressively toward the safe, timely, and efficient integration of UAS into the NAS, keeping in mind that safety is the FAA's sole mission and authority. As part of the integration effort, the agency has been working with government partners to streamline the certificates of authorization procedures.
